1. The present writ petition has been filed, inter alia, calling upon the respondents to forthwith disburse monthly subsistence allowance in favour of the petitioner from the date of suspension. It is a petitioner's case that he had joined Ananda Chandra College Para, P.S. Kotwali, P.O. & Dist. Jalpaiguri as a guest lecturer in the said college.

2. According to the petitioner there has been no complaint against him from the students. It is also the petitioner's case that in connection with a complaint lodged against the petitioner before the Women's Police Station Jalpaiguri in connection with a criminal case being Women Police Case No. 44 of 2022 dated 21.6.2022 the petitioner was arrested. Subsequently, an order of suspension was served on the petitioner by college authorities on 30.06.2022 inter alia, debarring the petitioner from all types of college assignment during the period of suspension.

3. According to the petitioner the petitioner's services have not been terminated. The petitioner is still in employment and as such the respondents cannot deny subsistence allowance in his favour. In support of his contention he has placed reliance on the judgement delivered by the Hon'ble Supreme in the case of Capt. M.Paul Anthony v. Bharat Gold Mines Ltd. And Another, reported in AIR 1999 Supreme Court 1416.

4. Mr. Chakraborty, learned Advocate representing the college authorities submits that on the basis of the FIR lodged against the petitioner, the petitioner had been arrested. Consequent upon the petitioner's arrest and proceeding under the provisions of POCSO Act, being initiated against the petitioner that the petitioner has been kept under suspension and has been debarred from all types of college assignment during the aforesaid period. Considering the nature of allegations the petitioner cannot be permitted to continue to discharge his functions as a guest lecturer in the college. He further submits that petitioner is not a regular lecturer and is only receiving a consolidated remuneration. Since, the petitioner is not a regular lecturer, the college authorities did not disburse any subsistence allowance in his favour. There is no irregularity on the part of the college authorities in not allowing subsistence allowance.

5. Ms. Dutta Chowdhury, learned Advocate representing the State respondents on the other hand submitted that petitioner was allegedly involved in a heinous crime for which a FIR was lodged against the petitioner being FIR No. 44 dated 2022 in Jalpaiguri Women's Police Station Case under Section 376(2)(f) of the Indian Penal Code 1860 read with Section 6 of the Pocso Act 2012.

6. Heard the learned Advocate appearing for the respective parties and considered the materials on record. Admittedly the petitioner was appointed as a guest lecturer with the respondent no. 1, and there is no dispute that as on the date of petitioner's arrest the petitioner was discharging his function as guest lecturer. Consequent upon the petitioner's arrest the college authorities had purported to keep the petitioner under suspension and had debarred him from all types of college assignment during the period of suspension. It is well settled that suspension is not a termination of employment the same only debarred the concerned delinquent from discharging his duties. In this case, it is noted that on the basis of a criminal complaint lodged against the petitioner a criminal case is being proceeded with. I have been able to ascertain from the learned Advocate representing the authorities that a charge sheet has already been filed, though the trial is yet to commence. However, taking note of the fact that an order of suspension does not put an end to the service and further taking into consideration that the college authorities have debarred the petitioner from all types of college assignment during the period of suspension, I am of the view that if subsistence allowance is not paid to the petitioner the petitioner would not be able to sustain himself. Now payment of subsistence allowance would be violative of the Constitutional provisions as the same would tantamount to denial of livelihood to the petitioner.

7. In this case, the learned Advocate representing the parties have also not been able to enlighten this Court as to when Criminal Trial is likely to conclude. Having regard to the facts and circumstances I direct the respondent to disburse the subsistence allowance in favour of the petitioner in terms of the West Bengal College Teachers (Security of Service) Act, 1975, such subsistence allowance should be paid till such time the petitioner is kept under suspension.

8. Since the petitioner's grievance is limited to payment of subsistence allowance during the period of suspension nothing survives in the present petition. Needless to note the subsistence allowance in favour of the petitioner be disbursed from the date of suspension within three weeks from the date of communication of this order and respondent should continue to disburse the same till such time he is kept under suspension.

9. With the above observation the matter is disposed of.

10. Since, I have not called for affidavit the allegation made in the writ petition are deemed not to have been admitted by the respondents.

11. There shall be, however, no order as to costs.
