498A/494/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860. No evidence has been adduced or brought on record that proves or suggests that the accused persons on trial in this case committed the offences punishable under sections 498A/494/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

This Court therefore holds that the essential ingredients to connect the accused persons with the offence punishable under sections 498A/494/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 are absent in the present case.

In fact, the prosecution has failed to bring home any iota of evidence to constitute the offences, including the ingredients of such offences as punishable under sections 498A/494/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

All the points are thus answered in the negative.

In the result prosecution case fails and the accused persons stand acquitted.

Hence, it is

ORDERED

That the accused persons namely Jagadish Barman, Sanatan Barman and Baby Barman are found not guilty of committing the offences punishable under sections 498A/494/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and they are hereby acquitted as per section 248(1) of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

The accused persons are present in court along with the learned lawyer representing them. Judgement is pronounced in open court in their presence. The bail bonds already furnished by the accused persons in this case shall be treated as bail bonds under section 437A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, in statutory compliance thereof.

The case record is directed to be consigned to the DRR following the modalities of law.

A copy of this judgement and order is directed to be sent before the office of the District Magistrate for his information and necessary action with regard to the right of appeal of de-facto complainant/victim through DLSA.
